CLEVELAND (O.) July 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A staff correspondent of a Cleveland newspaper tonight wired an interview obtained from John D. Rockefeller at his Pocantico estate today. The oil king referred to the attacks made upon him by Miss Ida Tarbell and other writers and said:
"I never despair. Sometimes things that are said of me are cruel, and they hurt, but I am never a pessimist. I believe in men and the brotherhood of men, and am confident that everything will come out for the good of all in the end. You are just a young man, but you can take my word. I am older than you, and have seen the world—you can always believe in real men."
Evidently a desire to explain why he talked in this free way to the reporter overcame Rockefeller for he said: "I know I have talked much with you, but you are a persevering young man. I know how hard you have tried to make me, and I admire your courage. I am glad you are here."

DENVER (Colo.) July 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] This morning, John K. Mullen, the millionaire flouring-mill owner, caused the arrest of Tyson S. Dines, a prominent attorney, on a charge of assault with intent to kill. Dines gave bond, and was released. Later, Mullen had papers prepared in a suit for $50,000 damages.
Yesterday, Dines went to the Mullen home, walked into the parlor and, using a dagger, slashed Mullen across the face and hands with it. Then he knocked him down, and Mullen's legs, drew a revolver. Dines says the weapon fell from his pocket.
The cause of the trouble was a two-party telephone line. Mullen was anxious to call a physician for a relative, who was desperately ill, but Miss Virginia Dines, prominent in smart society and the attorney's daughter, would not yield the line after half an hour's wait. Mullen said "No lady," would hold the line under such circumstances, and Dines decided to assert the alleged insult to his child.

Gen. Neoloshchakov Calling Urgently for Reinforcements—Social Democrats Formally Decide to Support Revolutionary Groups—Appeal to Soldiers and Sailors to Rise.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]

S. T. PETERSBURG, July 31.—Admission in its resolutions announced that the aim of the revolution is to secure a constituent assembly of the Russian people to decide on the future form of government.
M. Alladin, who was leader of the Group of Toff of the outlawed Parliament, has arrived here from London, where he went to attend the conference of the Interparliamentary Union, but he is carefully concealing his whereabouts.
News received here from Elizabetopol, where a serious outbreak occurred, July 28, in the first battalion of the Svesky regiment says that order has been restored, but the affair is still shrouded in considerable mystery. Nevertheless, enough is known to establish the fact that the loyal troops used machine guns against their mutinous comrades, which alone is enough to create a deep impression in the army.
The rumor is in circulation, last night, that Gen. Trepot had been assassinated turns out to be as baseless as the report to the same effect which was current last week.
APPEAL OF THE RADICALS.
The full text of the appeal to the army and navy made July 17 by the radical groups of the outlawed Parliament, in conjunction with the Central Committee of the revolutionary organizations, is as follows:
"Soldiers and sailors, the government has betrayed the country, and is now outside the limits of the law.
"By such negotiations we declare the government has betrayed the country, and is now outside the limits of the law.
"Soldiers and sailors, your sacred duty is to free the Russian people from the treacherous government and defend Parliament. Every man falling in this holy war will cover himself with eternal fame, and the Russian people will bless his name. In this struggle your elected representatives will be with you. Be brave for the Fatherland, for the people and for land and liberty, against the criminal government."
The Social Democrats' Central Committee assembled from all sides to express the people by armed force. The people's representatives were elected from among your fathers and brothers in order to lay before the Emperor the needs of the people and to obtain land and liberty. But the Emperor would not listen to the elected of the people. He hardened to his former counselors, the Grand Dukes, Ministers, generals and wealthiest of the land owners, who did not want to give up their lands, their properties, or their emoluments (amounting to many thousands of rubles) and their irresponsible power.
RUSSIA IN TWO PARTS.
Russia is now divided into two parts. On one side is the vast majority, all the peasants and workingmen, all the poor and oppressed, the best educated and the most enlightened citizens, the best officers and all the martyrs in the jails, including many thousands of soldiers and sailors. On the other side is a collection of oppressors, such as Trepot, Pohl-

Even the prosecutor, Emley, declared: "Why, he did not take away, so far as we can find, anything like $125,000."
Sheriff Bergen, who was aroused to receive the unexpected applicant, said to him: "I regret that you have come here, Mr. Belcher. What do you want?"
"I came," answered Belcher, "to surrender myself." Then he added: "I'd like to have you communicate as early as possible with my counsel, W. H. ## MRS. WILLIAM COREY IS GRANTED DIVORCE.

*Husband Deserted Her in New York and Left the Boy in Her Charge.
Plaintiff's Sister Testifies New York
Wealthy Men Are Not Fit Fathers.*

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

RENO (Nev.) July 30.—At 2 o'clock this afternoon Mrs. William Corey, wife of the president of the United States Steel Corporation, was awarded a divorce in the Second District Court of Nevada, sitting at Reno. The case was submitted without argument and the jury took but one ballot. It was out but a few minutes.

Mrs. Corey was in tears when told that she had been given a decree, and the custody of her sixteen-year-old son, Allan Corey, she drove at once to her home on Riverside avenue, where she says she will continue to make her home. No evidence was submitted by the defense and there was no argument.

The air of mystery thrown over the case by the attorneys was the chief matter of interest in the trial, which was begun this morning. Promptly at 10 o'clock, when the case was called, Mrs. Corey, attended by her sister, Miss Corey, and her sister-in-law, Miss Corey, appeared in court.

William E. Corey, president of the United States Steel Corporation, was represented by Joseph R. Redding of New York City and several local attorneys.

CHARGES OF DESERTION. In her complaint she charged Corey with desertion, claiming the act was committed in May of 1905. This is denied by Corey in his answer to the complaint. He also charges that she is a non-resident of Nevada, and that her cause, therefore, should not stand.

The question of alimony was not introduced. Mrs. Corey made an interesting admission, however, touching upon this phase of the case, stating that in May, 1905, several weeks before her petition for divorce was filed she negotiated, through her attorneys, a financial settlement with her husband. She was not asked what the nature of this settlement was.

"I am a resident of Reno, Nev.," said Mrs. Corey when placed upon the stand, "and the wife of William Corey, the defendant in this action. We were married on December 1, 1902, at Pittsburgh, and lived together until May 1, 1905. At that time my husband deserted me and went to New York. I followed him and held a conversation with him in the Hotel Lorraine."

It was then that he told me that he had decided to live apart from me. He said that it was impossible for us to live happily together, and that I would never see him again. He stated that he intended going to Europe for several months. There was no scene. I talked with him about the matter and urged him to again resume his place in our home, but he refused. I have never seen him since."

Mrs. Corey added that she came to Reno for her health, and that she had no intention of bringing an action for divorce at the time she took up her residence in Nevada. She stated that she selected Reno upon the advice of her sister-in-law, Miss Addie Corey; that she considered this place her future home and expected to live here in the future. She stated that she was first suited for the custody of her son, and asked the court to place him in her care.

Mrs. Corey was visibly affected while telling her story, but testified without evasion and in a clear voice. Her attorneys feared that she would collapse, as her health has suffered seriously since the separation.

NEWSPAPERS NOT CAUSE. In his opening statement her attorney, Joseph R. Redding, stated that she had been driven to a separation and the divorce proceedings by the sensational stories printed in the newspapers. "It is true that newspaper notoriety was the principal factor in your separation from Mr. Corey and is responsible for this divorce proceeding," asked Benjamin Currier, one of her attorneys. "Such is not the case. The stories that have appeared in the press have had nothing to do with it."

Miss Addie Corey was an interesting witness. She corroborated Mrs. Corey's statements that Corey had deserted his wife and told her she and her aged mother had made several ineffectual attempts to effect a reconciliation. Her brother, she said, had lost sight of his home, being absorbed in business and infatuated with the fast life of New York.

"Do you consider Mr. Corey a proper custodian for his son?" she was asked. "I do not," she replied. "Why?"

"For the reason," she said, "that he is not a proper person for his son to associate with. He has no home and his associates are not fit companions for a young man of Allan's age. I do not believe any New York man is fit to have charge of a boy of his age."

"Do you mean all New York men," Miss Corey?" continued the attorney. "I mean the healthy New York men," Allan Corey stated that at the time of the parting his father called him to his office and told him that he had decided to part from his mother.

"He said I was too young to understand the reasons. He then said that my mother was a good woman and that my place was at her side. Several witnesses were introduced to establish the residence in Nevada of the plaintiff, all being citizens of Reno. At the conclusion of the testimony, Attorney Redding stated that his client, William E. Corey, was an anxious for the decree of divorce of his wife."

"If the decree is granted," he said, "Mr. Corey will be entirely satisfied. He has consented to the divorce. This understanding between Mr. Corey and the attorneys of Mrs. Corey was reached some time ago."

DECISION TO LIVE APART. It was then that he told me that he had decided to live apart from me. He said that it was impossible for us to live happily together, and that I would never see him again. He stated that he intended going to Europe for several months. There was no scene. I talked with him about the matter and urged him to again resume his place in our home, but he refused. I have never seen him since."

CONDITION OF WELLS-FARGO'S.

EXPRESS COMPANY IN A VERY STRONG FINANCIAL SHAPE.

Balance Sheet Shows Total Assets of Nearly Twenty-one Million Dollars—Real Estate Holdings and Loans Also Heavy—What Dudley Evans Says of the Real Property.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) NEW YORK, July 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Officials of Wells, Fargo & Co. today issued to the concern's stockholders an exhaustive financial statement, disclosing the present condition of the company, giving the balance sheet as of July 28, 1906, schedule of bonds, stocks, warrants, real estate and loans and a statement of yearly earnings from August 1, 1906, until July 28, 1906.

These statements, which are of extreme interest, as showing the remarkably strong condition of Wells, Fargo & Co., are the ones which have been insistently demanded for the last few weeks by the minority shareholders. The real estate holdings, the present condition of the company, giving the balance sheet as of July 28, 1906, schedule of bonds, stocks, warrants, real estate and loans and a statement of yearly earnings from August 1, 1906, until July 28, 1906.

The balance sheet shows total assets, up to July 28, of $20,777,710. Surplus funds invested in bonds and stocks aggregate $5,375,768. The real estate holdings are valued at $1,748,782, while loans secured by Stock Exchange collateral amount to $1,257,004. Net earnings of the company in 1905 were $3,224,809, and for the eleven months ending June 30, 1906, were $2,662,223.

Dudley Evans, president of the company, says: "Much of the company's real estate was taken, unwillingly, for debts. It represents an accumulation of years, and have been in the market for some time. The principal part of the real estate is in the destroyed district, and its future is uncertain."

GO AS LIONS, COME AS LAMBS. AS KING OF FRANCE, MARCH UP—AND BACK AGAIN.

Strikers at Aguas Calientes. Deal With Summary by Mexican Government—Armed Rurales Meet Sily Bluff, and Two Thousand Men Return to Work Defeated.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.) AGUAS CALIENTES (Mex.) July 29.—The summary method adopted by the government for dealing with labor troubles and agitators received an apt exemplification here Monday. Ever since the trouble at Cananea there have been rumors of an impending strike or agitation—not only here, but in other Northern Mexican camps.

The government was carefully watching the progress of the movement, which was promoted by an aristocratic agitator in St. Louis and elsewhere, and a short time ago a force of state troops was sent here to aid the local police.

September 16 was the date that was understood to have been selected for the strike, but it was known to have been decided to precipitate matters. Accordingly, on Monday last, over 2400 active employees of the American Smelting and Refining Company quit work in a body and marched down the street, carrying flags and banners, and surrounded the property for the purpose of demanding a large increase in pay or else "doing things" in case of refusal.

Then they initiated the King of France, who "with twice ten thousand men, marched on the city and then over twice one thousand men, marched to the gates, took just one look at the city, and then returned, and then quietly and submissively marched back again and went to work as the usual wages."

Runners had it that the number of the agitators, who are responsible for this trouble, have been sent down into the country for their own protection. The agitators in the army, who they will have a long time to work off their surplus enthusiasm.

The promptness and efficiency shown by the government in dealing with this agitation is most gratifying to Americans. The government has shown that there might be a repetition of the Cananea trouble.

It is perfectly evident that the government has the situation well in hand and that foreign lives and property will be protected at all hazards.

ago by the mysterious Tascot, was recalled, today, with the filing of a suit for the benefit of her creditors. The interest of Mrs. Snell-Coffin-Coffin, Walker-Coffin-Layman-Love as she may be known, is only in whatever residue may be left after her creditors are paid, providing the suit for possession of property, said to be worth $76,000, is successful. The proceedings were begun in the Federal Circuit Court by Attorney Russell Whitman for C. J. A. Charney of Racine, Wis.

SHE RAN THE CAR. Because the motorman on a South Halsted streetcar refused to put on speed that Mrs. S. H. Childster might catch a Grand Trunk train for her home in Evergreen Park, Mrs. Childster threw him from the platform, grabbed the controller, and turned on full speed. For six blocks the big car dashed through the crowded street, leaving a trail of wreckage in its wake. Mrs. Childster was finally stopped and arrested, but the police decided she was not insane, and allowed her to go.

According to the Council of Workmen, the total number of men on strike in Moscow has reached 18,000, in addition to which the Voskresensky factory today locked out 2000 employees.

The Governor of Moscow has issued a proclamation in answer to the Viborg manifesto of the outlawed Parliament and given it a wide circulation here. The manifesto is revolutionary in character and directed against the holy power of the Emperor. It is a loyal population to come to the assistance of His Majesty and lighten his heavy burdens.

CONFER AT THAW'S CALL. Prisoner's Mother, His Wife and Counsel Gather at Tombs—Detective O'Mara Excluded. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) NEW YORK, July 30.—This morning Mrs. William Thaw went to the Tombs prison to see her son. She appeared in better health than at any time since her return from Europe. The prisoner's wife and his attorneys also called on him today.

While Mrs. Thaw was still in conference with her son, Mrs. Harry K. Thaw hurried to the wardens' office from Thaw's cell. She was evidently disturbed, and asked the warden to permit her to see her son. She asked and allowed her to use the prison telephone to call up Clifford W. Hartbridge, Thaw's counsel, and his detective, Roger O'Mara. She declared that the matter was urgent. The warden consented. Both men responded promptly and had interviews with Thaw.

TRACES OF TEARS. When the elder Mrs. Thaw came down to the warden's office there were traces of tears on her face and she seemed agitated. She did not speak to Mrs. Harry K. Thaw in going through the office. The younger Mrs. Thaw left the prison in company with Hartbridge.

There was an excited conversation between Roger O'Mara and Mrs. Harry K. Thaw before they left the Tombs prison. Mrs. O'Mara and Hartbridge started to leave the prison together, but O'Mara returned to Mrs. Thaw and asked her to go to her hotel.

"No, I'm going to stay right here," she said, "until the visitors' hour comes this afternoon. I don't want to leave with things as they are."

"You must go," said O'Mara. He took her arm while she was still protesting and led her to her husband's room. Mrs. Thaw said to the driver: "You take her to the Lorraine, and don't bring her back here again today."

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Eleanor Smith was granted a divorce today from Harper Smith, proprietor of Smith's cash store.

Mrs. Smith's story was corroborated by witnesses, who stated that the husband's conduct had been observed by mutual friends of the married pair, who had remarked upon it. Her husband had been hitherto a respectable man.

A liberal settlement was made upon the wife before the case came to trial, and Smith put in no defense.

SERVICEABLE STILL SIXTY PER CENT.

SAN FRANCISCO PUBLIC BUILDINGS WILL BE RESTORED.

Supervisors Resolve That Debris Be Cleared Away and Hall of Records Be Immediately Put in Good Condition—Three Experts Will Examine City Hall.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—The Board of Supervisors passed a vote of confidence in the report on the condition of the City Hall and also of the hall of justice at its meeting today.

A special committee reported that "at least 60 per cent. of both buildings can be made use of again, and within less than two years, they can be completely and economically restored."

The board resolved that the debris should be cleared away and that the Hall of Records be immediately put in good condition for the Records room.

For the permanent restoration of the City Hall and the Hall of Justice, the committee was instructed to employ three experts—a structural engineer, an architect and a builder—thoroughly to go over the buildings in detail and ascertain what will be necessary to restore them.

The grand jury today instituted an investigation of the Relief Finance Company's legal right to disburse the funds contributed for the benefit of San Francisco's stricken citizens.

The status of the Red Cross is also involved, and in the end some judicial opinion will doubtless have to be adopted which may throw some light into the legal tangle created by the emergency and the various measures adopted to meet it.

NO FREIGHT FOR SAN FRANCISCO.
 EMBARGO NOW COVERS ALL BUT OIL AND PERISHABLES.

Effect of Order Issued Yesterday Sure to Be Disastrous Unless Speedily Removed—Prices of Everything Will Go Up, It Is Feared.

Five Thousand Cars in Yards.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—The embargo on freight was extended today to all goods coming from the city by freight over the Southern Pacific except crude oil and perishable goods, such as foodstuffs.

This action was taken after a conference of the local officials of the Southern Pacific, in pursuance of the general policy of General Manager Kruttschnitt.

Saturday last an order was issued placing the ban on all shipments from the northern part of the country, and as this order was made general today, San Francisco is cut off from all supplies.

The effect of the present embargo is sure to be disastrous unless speedily removed, and it is feared that it will cause the prices of all goods to go up. The railroad officials are of the opinion that if the blockade of freight is not lessened in the course of a few weeks it will become a serious danger to the city and to the State.

It is estimated that there are 5000 loaded cars in the yards of San Francisco and Oakland.

HUNTS FOR DAUGHTER.
 SEARCH FOR MISSING GIRL.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

PORTLAND, July 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Anna Garvin, an elderly woman whose mind appears to be affected through worry, spent all day today about the police station, a most pitiful object.

She came here from Los Angeles to find her married daughter whom she had not heard from during the past year. The daughter's name is Mrs. Ida Cooper, wife of a painter whose first name the old lady does not know. She was unable to get any trace of Mrs. Cooper during two days of persistent search.

She had very little money left and was afraid she would be left destitute. The Salvation Army rescue home took the case in charge during the afternoon.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—Judge Hebbard today made an order admitting George D. Collins to bail in the case of $10,000. Collins claims he will be able to secure securities to this amount. The order was granted on the strength of Collins's appeal to the United States Supreme Court on a writ of error. Collins alleging that he was not tried for the offense for which he was extradited from Canada.

Salmon Canneries Shut Down.
 VANCOUVER (B. C.) July 30.—The salmon canneries at Rivers Inlet will commence shutting down this week after having experienced one of the most profitable seasons in recent years. The port of Rivers Inlet district will be about 125,000 cases. The run of salmon on the Fraser River continues good and the total pack will be much larger than was anticipated.

Broken Arm Bad for Barkentine.
 SEATTLE, July 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The barkentine Retriever, which sailed from Port Gamble Saturday with a big load of lumber for California, returned to Port Angeles this morning with a broken arm. Her return was made in order to secure medical attendance for a mate who is suffering from a broken arm, received in a fight with a bear last night. She will put to sea again as soon as his place can be filled.

Dies After Arrest.
 FRESNO, July 30.—George Van Bergen, a member of the San Francisco firm of Stoll & Van Bergen, died tonight in the Hughes Hotel of thermal fever. He had been ill for two or three days. Saturday afternoon the sick man had gone out on the street and a policeman, thinking he was intoxicated, arrested him. As soon as the mistake was discovered, Van Bergen was returned to the hotel.

Bore Holes in the Earth and Let Gas Out.

Col. Edwards Advises Crank to See Wall Street.

American Delegates to the Wireless Conference.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, July 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Edwards received a peculiar visitor today. He asked the Secretary's assistance in financing the scheme to prevent earthquakes in California.

"I'll bore holes in the earth and let the gas out," the visitor said. "All I need is a hundred million dollars to do the work, which will stop catastrophes like last spring."

Col. Edwards' private secretary, E. C. Robinson, tried to steer the man away from his chief. He was not successful, but Edwards himself handled the crank successfully. His long experience as private secretary to Shaw and Postmaster-General Payne served him well. He listened attentively, appraising the man's scheme, and referred him to Wall street as the proper place to get on. The man left, apparently contented. He is a Washingtonian.

LOVE LETTERS IN NEGRO'S TRUNK.

DETECTIVES FIND MRS. HARTJE'S HONEYED MISSIVES.

Sixth Week of Airing of Pittsburgh Scandal Opens With Testimony.

Which Makes Defendant Angry.

Police Sent to Preserve Order Among Crowd.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

PITTSBURGH, July 30.—Beginning the sixth week of the hearing, today was taken up with the long-expected evidence as to the manner in which Augustus Harje procured the love letters alleged to have been written by Mrs. Mary Scott Harje to Tom Madine, the coachman co-respondent in the case.

John D. Staubb, a private detective, swore that he twice opened Madine's trunk at the house in which Madine roomed. The first time was May 31; the second, June 18. On the second occasion, he said, John Anderson, another detective, was with him. Staubb is the man who has been known as "Craig." He declared that after the letters had been shown to Andrew Fisher, Harje's brother-in-law, they were mailed by Staubb to Attorney Scott Ferguson, chief counsel for Harje.

Staubb was subjected to a vigorous cross-examination and the story of the methods which he and his brother detective used in such an unscrupulous manner was unable to tell what other articles were in the trunk and several times became tangled under the cross-examination. Anderson corroborated Staubb in regard to the second looting of the trunk. The superintendent of the detective agency testified as to the directions given his men and about receiving the letters from them. Rejection was made by Mrs. Harje's attorneys to the introduction of the testimony, but Judge Robert S. Fraser admitted it, declaring, however, that another side would be allowed the fullest latitude in seeking to rebut the evidence.

Andrew Fisher was the last witness of the day. He assumed responsibility for hiring the detectives and said that the attorneys for his brother did not know where the street was until he told them.

FIND LETTER FROM FATHER.

Incidental to the story of the robbery of the trunk, it developed that a letter and telegram signed by John P. Scott, father of Mrs. Harje, were found in the trunk along with the forty honeyed missives which the wife of the millionaire is charged with writing. It is alleged that a paragraph in this letter reads: "I am sending you $60."

Neither the telegram nor the letter was read in court.

Daring Staubb's testimony Mrs. Harje appeared uneasy and then angry, while her husband's manner was apparently one of cool indifference. Madine came into court while the witness was still on the stand and after listening intently to the testimony for a time, hurriedly left.

When court adjourned a large crowd assembled in front of the Courthouse and for time the street was almost impassable. Threats were made of an assault on the detectives who testified today and a detail of city police was sent to preserve order. When Staubb and Anderson left the Courthouse they were followed by several men believed to be detectives.

Attention of State Insurance Department Called to Conditions Alleged to Exist as Result of San Francisco Disaster—Prompt Settlements in the East.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

NEW YORK, July 30.—The Merchants' Association of New York tonight made public a letter which recently was sent by the organization to the State Superintendent of Insurance, Otto Kelsey, at Albany, asking that he make an investigation into the solvency of certain fire insurance companies operating in New York State.

Mr. Kelsey's reply, in which he states that the insurance department will endeavor to discharge its duty as required by its obligation to the people was also given.

The letter of the Merchants' Association to Mr. Kelsey called attention to the current talk in insurance circles affecting a number of companies whose assets are said to be badly impaired. If indeed, the corporations are not bankrupt, mainly because of the San Francisco disaster.

The letter declares that, from information received by the Merchants' Association, it was believed that some alleged insolvent western companies continue to do business in the East and make prompt settlement of small claims of the insured.

Pacific Coast are doing everything in their power to scale down claims on the plea of inability to pay in full.

SUES FOR PAY FROM SEWELL.

INVENTOR DE LERY HELPED THE MILLIONAIRE TO DIVORCE.

Alleges in His Complaint That Thirty Thousand Dollars Was Contingent on Three Propositions and the Action Was to Be Conducted With Little Publicity as Possible.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, July 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Barton Sewell, the millionaire vice-president of the American Smelting and Refining Company, is defendant in a truly remarkable suit which Joseph Blasco De Lery has begun in the Supreme Court. De Lery, the inventor of an incandescent gas mantle, claims that Sewell owes him $27,500 for services he rendered in persuading the first Mrs. Sewell to get a divorce with as little publicity as possible and without troubling a court to learn how many millions Sewell was worth.

De Lery, whose office is on Nassau street, claims, through his counsel, Blandy, Mooney & Shipman, that Sewell promised to pay $5000 when the first Mrs. Sewell should begin a suit for divorce by serving the summons on him $15,000 when an interlocutory decree in her favor should be made final.

HUSBAND KILLS WIFE STEALER.

Follows Guilty Couple From Arizona to Mexico.

Postage Stamp Shows Hiding Place of Betrayers.

Slayer Spent Time in Los Angeles During Search.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.
VELARDENA (Durango, Mex.) July 26.—James J. Brady, master mechanic of the San Lorenzo smelter here, was shot and instantly killed today by Frank Bauer, an old resident of Joplin, Mo., but more recently of Los Angeles and Jerome, Ariz. Brady has been living here some time with Bauer's wife and child, the couple having run away from Jerome together and finding a hiding place until the betrayed husband's detective work finally resulted in his finding them here. Bauer fired three shots from his revolver at close range into Brady's face, any one of which would have proved fatal.

Brady had been befriended when broke and out of work, by Bauer, who took him into his home at Jerome, fed him, gave him a room, and after much exertion, procured employment for him. In return, Brady stole Bauer's wife, one-year-old infant son and all his hard-earned savings, some $1000 of $1000, and came to this remote place in the false belief that it would be impossible to trace him and his guilty consort thither.

SYMPATHY WITH SLAYER.
Both Bauer and his guilty wife are in prison. People generally sympathize with the slayer.

About a year ago Brady drifted into Jerome, from some town in southern Arizona. He became acquainted with Bauer, and the former was unable for some reason to obtain employment. Bauer in the kindness of his heart took him home, with him, lodged and fed him, and befriended him in every way. Finally, Bauer, after much woe, managed to secure a situation for Brady, and he went to work at a good wage. Not long after this, Bauer, in the mistaken attempt to deceive his husband as to his relations with Brady, told him that she did not like to have a stranger about the house and she wished him to go to another place. This Brady did, and after working a few months and saving a few hundred dollars, he left Jerome and came to Mexico, where he subsequently secured the position that he held at the time of his death. Bauer had had some idea of coming to this country also, but Brady wrote to him dissuading him from doing so, and saying that it was no place for any one to come expecting to find desirable employment.

WIFE'S PLOT TO ROB.
Three or four months ago, Mrs. Bauer's health again failed her, and she again asked her husband to give up his employment and go to another locality. This time her ideas turned seriously toward Los Angeles. Bauer had about $1000 in savings, which he had deposited in a bank in Pittsburgh, Kan., and he decided to make a flying trip to the metropolis of Southern California and investigate the opportunities for engaging in business there. He found a grocery store that he thought would suit, secured the refusal of it, and returned to Jerome. Before leaving for his Los Angeles trip—he sent his wife and infant child, then but a few months old, back to visit her people at Pittsburgh.

As soon as he had returned to Jerome, he wrote his wife, telling her of the success of his journey to Southern California, of the good business opening he had found, and giving her written authority to draw his money from the bank, go to Los Angeles and pay it over to the parties whom he designated, the while he closed up his affairs at Jerome, and prepared to join her in California.

WOMAN DISAPPEARS.
After giving these instructions to his wife, he waited for some time to receive a reply, but none came. Days passed, and at last he became alarmed. He wrote to his wife's family at Pittsburgh, and was told that she had left there ostensibly to go to Los Angeles. Then he went to Los Angeles and stayed there for some time. He learned there that the money agreed upon as the price of the grocery had not been paid.

Thoroughly alarmed at this mysterious news, but not for a moment suspecting the truth, and that he had been basely betrayed by the wife and the friend whom he had implicitly trusted, Bauer at once left Los Angeles and went to Pittsburgh. He made inquiries from his wife's family, and from all whom he thought might be able to throw light upon the mysterious disappearance of his family, but found none. Every aid was rendered him by the Brandenburgs and by the officials and people who knew him as an honest, industrious man, but all to no avail. Finally, after the mystery had remained unsolved, and conjecture had been exhausted, one of Mrs. Bauer's sisters told the husband that some time before she (Mrs. Bauer) had received a letter from Mexico, and that it might be that the disappearance would throw light on the disappearance of the mother and infant.

STAMP SHOWS RETREAT.
Miss Brandenburg said that she went downtown one day with her sister, and the latter went to the postoffice. When she came out she had a letter in her hand, and, glancing at it, Miss Brandenburg saw that it had a foreign stamp in the corner. Being a collector of postage stamps, Miss Brandenburg at once asked her sister for it, and it was given to her. Then the recipient told that it was a Mexican stamp, and handed it over to Bauer.

over, he began to take a somewhat philosophical view of the matter. If his wife preferred another man to him, well and good. He had no desire to chain an unloving woman to him. But his child and his hard-earned savings were a different matter. He did not propose to have the one brought up under such surroundings, nor did he feel like losing the money that had cost him so much hard work. So, first providing himself with a letter from the Chief of Police of Pittsburgh, commanding him to the good offices and assistance of the police of this country, he journeyed to Valeradena.

CONVICT TELLS SPY OF CRIME.

DETAILS OF MOST ATROCIOUS
MURDER CONFESSED.

Half-Breed in Washington Penitentiary, at Expiration of Sentence, Will Be Arrested for Killing Judge Lewis and Wife for Money—Jewelry Taken Years Ago Recovered.

BY DIRECT-WIRE TO THE TIMES.
TACOMA (Wash.) July 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Johnny McLean, a half-breed Colville Indian, has confessed to a stool pigeon placed in an adjoining cell that he murdered Judge and Mrs. Lewis at Alameda, Lincoln county, three years ago.

McLean is known to have murdered at least two others. Officers believe him guilty of still other crimes. On his release from the penitentiary in September, McLean will be arrested for the Lewis murder, one of the most atrocious in the State's history.

Judge Lewis and his wife were reputed wealthy and kept their money hidden about the house. McLean and another went to the house one afternoon, finding Judge Lewis alone. McLean confessed to the spy in the penitentiary that they may have hidden where his money was hidden by burning the soles of his feet with hot irons and promising to spare his life. After he told them where the money was hidden they deliberately killed him.

They found Mrs. Lewis in the barn, killed her with clubs and escaped with $5000. A few days afterward Condon, McLean's pal, was found dead with a bullet through his head. Officers believe McLean killed him.

In one of McLean's caches has been found jewelry taken from the passengers on the Northern Pacific robbery in Montana several years ago.

FEAR ALLISON MAY NOT LIVE.

Iowa Politicians Expect to See Cummins Senator.

"Stand-Patters" Try Hard to Capture the State.

Socialists Make Fight For Union Labor Works.

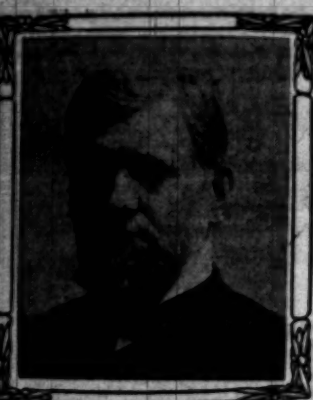

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

DES MOINES (Iowa) July 30.—

[Exclusive Dispatch.] With the Republican State Convention close at hand, all is turmoil within the Republican ranks. The first sign of wavering came today, when it was rumored that the "stand-patters" would sacrifice Perkins and concede the nomination of Gov. Cummins if the 2-cent passenger-fare plank was kept out of the platform and they were given second place on the ticket. This Gov. Cummins refuses to consider.

Senator Allison is ill at his home in Dubuque, and already the question of a possible successor is being considered. The next Legislature, it is declared, would elect Gov. Cummins, and the "stand-patters" wish to name the Lieutenant-Governor, thus gaining control of the State should Cummins be sent to Washington.

DES MOINES, July 30.—The Republican State Central Committee met today to arrange the preliminaries for the State convention, which will be held here Wednesday. The counties in the State are entitled to 160 delegates. About two hundred delegates are expected. Cummins, who is a candidate for re-nomination, claims to have a majority of the delegates. The adherents of George D. Perkins, who is also a candidate for Governor, maintain that there were irregularities in quite a number of the county conventions, and have contested and protested the delegation selected by the majority in such conventions.

The feeling on both sides is apparently very bitter, and if the State Central Committee makes up a preliminary roll which gives the Perkins men control at the start, it is not unlikely that the proceedings of the convention from the beginning will be characterized by the liveliest kind of verbal warfare. A bolt is among the possibilities.

The committee is understood to stand even "stand-patters" and four "progressives," the former being Perkins men and the latter Cummins followers. The outcome is uncertain since, with the contested delegates eliminated, the two factions will be about equally divided, the majority either way not exceeding perhaps twenty-five.

CUMMINS DENIES JURISDICTION. At the afternoon session, Chairman Spence called attention to the filing of a petition in behalf of Perkins, questioning the right of certain delegates to sit in the State convention. Notice of this, he said, was sent to Gov. Cummins, and a reply had been received denying the authority and jurisdiction of the committee in the premises.

Bivington, for Perkins, entered appearance for representatives of twelve counties, who desired to be heard on the merits of their controversy. No delegation claiming to have been chosen in the interest of Gov. Cummins, and a reply had been received denying the authority and jurisdiction of the committee in the premises.

Under the Terrell election law, after each county the voters are dropped until a nomination is made. Col. Tom Campbell of Palestine leads and claims 20 votes in the convention, out of a total of 23.

Judge Charles K. Bell of this city, one of the candidates voted upon in the primaries, says the matter of nomination will have to be determined by the State convention.

UNION LABOR POLITICS. SOCIALISTS WANT THE WORKS. [BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.] NEW YORK, July 30.—The Central Federated Union, after a debate lasting through the afternoon and evening, yesterday, decided to go into politics in accordance with the recommendation of the Affiliated Unions made by President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor. The platform submitted by the Executive Committee, which has been under debate for two Sundays, was adopted in its entirety over the violent protests of the Socialists, who made a fight to force the Central Federated Union into committing itself to the Socialist party.

The Executive Committee, between the question of adopting additions or modifications submitted by Gompers in reference to the platform and anti-injunction planks of the platform.

The platform in brief, provides for the nomination of office men with trade-union cards who can be endorsed, if expedient, by the Republican or Democratic party, and contains the usual eight-hour, anti-child and other trade-union features. It provides that the candidate of neither Republican or Democratic party will be endorsed.

As soon as possible, the Executive Committee will call a meeting of representatives from all the Assembly dis-ferred, looking to a division of the delegation between Cummins and Perkins, based on the votes cast when the delegates to the county convention were elected. This amendment was laid on the table, but the original motion was carried. It was urged that the tabling of the amendment carried with it the original motion, and therefore the delegates selected by Gov. Cummins to represent Polk county in the State convention were not entitled to seats. The committee met up and heard a number of the cases, but reached no conclusion. Although Gov. Cummins had given notice that he would not be represented by the committee, the chairman of three Cummins delegations whose seats are questioned appeared. They stated, however, that the State Committee had no authority to go behind the returns, they simply coming before it for the purpose of furnishing such information as may be desired.

MAKES NEW SITUATION. Such a situation as that now existing in Iowa is new to the Republicans of this State. They have never known anything like it before. The party is apparently divided into two factions, and the feeling on both sides is very bitter. It is not unlikely that there may be two Republican tickets in the State at the next Wednesday. Although the State Central Committee has as yet taken no action looking to the making up of a temporary roll, the Cummins adherents say that if the contesting Perkins delegates are authorized to participate in the temporary organization of the convention, the action of the State Central Committee will be ignored, and the legally-elected Cummins delegates, who claim to have the majority, will organize the convention. As Chairman Spence calls the delegates to order.

RUCTION IN NEW YORK. HEART AGENTS WANT THINGS. [BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEW YORK, July 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There will be a significant test of strength between the radical and the conservative factions of the Democratic organization in the State when the Democratic State Convention meets Wednesday. The Hoffman House to issue a call for the Democratic State Committee. The line-up of the opposing forces began tonight, when the agents of William R. Hearst outlined their program for the Democratic State Committee, as follows:

Re-nomination of Cord Meyer for the chairmanship of the committee and the selection of F. E. McGuire of Albany or William J. Conners of Buffalo in his place.

Election of Hearst men to fill the five vacancies in the committee.

Issuance of a call for the State convention in Buffalo, at an early date, probably September 25.

Adoption of an address to the Democrats of the State, declaring for William R. Hearst for Governor.

In place of the program, the conservative leaders plan to have the committee do nothing except issue the call for the convention. They favor Saratoga as the place of meeting, and a later date than that set by the radicals. They are opposed to the re-nomination of Meyer until the new committee organizes, when the State convention disbands, and they do not think it advisable to fill the vacancies in the committee until that time.

ENDORSE PARDEE AND PORTER. REPUBLICANS AT SALINAS. [BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.] SALINAS, July 30.—The Republican County Committee has chosen Monterey as the place and September 1 as the date for holding the county convention. It has also appointed H. C. Montgomery, M. C. Craig, H. E. Abbott, A. R. Underwood, L. A. Work, E. A. Griffin, E. C. MacArthur, W. Carr, J. F. Glacianazzi and J. R. Patrick delegates to the State convention.

The same delegates, with the addition of W. J. Hill and R. B. Diaz, have been named as delegates to the Sixth Congress District convention.

The committee endorsed Pardee's administration, but agreed to support W. W. Porter of Watsonville for Governor as long as there was any chance for him to secure the nomination.

DEMOCRATS FOR FIELMAN. The Democratic Central County Committee has elected the following delegates to the State convention: M. F. Price, Thomas McCook, E. J. Werts, John D. Murphy, W. J. Barry, L. V. Lacy, Carl E. Osterhaus, W. H. Irvine, W. C. Greiter and John L. Kierman. It was noted that no proxies be allowed, and that in case one or more of the delegates cannot attend the convention at Sacramento the delegates to the Executive Committee will appoint delegates.

James Phelan of San Francisco seems to be the choice of the delegation for Governor.

WINSTON CHURCHILL'S AIDES. ETHEL BARRYMORE ENROLLED. [BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] BOSTON, July 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] His gubernatorial campaign of New Hampshire, Winston Churchill has drafted Ethel Barrymore, "Dicky" Davis, Melville E. Stone, Jr., and others as campaigners.

FOR GOVERNOR OF TEXAS. RACE NOT YET DECIDED. [BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] FORT WORTH (Tex.) July 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The race for Governor of Texas was not decided by the primary held Saturday. Neither of the four candidates will go before the State Democratic convention at Dallas, August 14, with votes sufficient to win.

Under the Terrell election law, after each county the voters are dropped until a nomination is made. Col. Tom Campbell of Palestine leads and claims 20 votes in the convention, out of a total of 23.

Judge Charles K. Bell of this city, one of the candidates voted upon in the primaries, says the matter of nomination will have to be determined by the State convention.

It provides that the candidate of neither Republican or Democratic party will be endorsed.

As soon as possible, the Executive Committee will call a meeting of representatives from all the Assembly distributed, which will be a general committee to carry out the object of the party. Trade-union clubs then will be formed in every assembly district, and the nominations will be made through them.

WELL, GOOD-BY. MR. WONG FONG.

BEAU BRUMMEL OF CHINESE TO GO NORTH TODAY.

Will Establish Business House in Ruins of Mongol Quarter of San Francisco—In Interview He Tells of the Plans of His Countrymen to Rebuild Section.

Picturesque Wong Fong, one of the most interesting characters in this coast, is about to move away from Los Angeles, and he will be one of the first to establish a mercantile business in the ruins of San Francisco's Chinatown.

For the present his wife will remain in Los Angeles, but Wong Fong will leave today for the North.

Chinatown will not be the same without him. It was he who started the town by turning from an exquisite dandy, gray and lavender Chinese dandy into an Americanized swell, no less gorgeous.

He speaks excellent English; is witty and genuinely entertaining. He wears American clothes that are the top notch of tailoring, and, one of his delicate fingers is adorned with a diamond not quite the size of a locomotive headlight.

He says he is going to San Francisco because he can't get any one to run his business there and not manage it. For a further reason, he says that prices are much better for Chinese goods in the North. Wholesale importers hurt the market here.

Like the Americans who are rebuilding, Wong Fong groans under the weight of the labor unions.

"We have to pay $5 for every plumber and $6 for every carpenter," he said last night. "It is terrible the rate it is costing to rebuild the city."

"We have been forced to economize by buying up old brick from the burned buildings which we bought for $4 a thousand; new brick would cost us $15. In that way, we were able to get a little on the increased price of building."

Wong Fong says that the hole Chinese heart in San Francisco will be running again full blast by Chinese New Year, when a gigantic "blow-out" is planned by way of a celebration.

The reopening will be timed by the arrival of the hundreds and thousands of Chinese who went from the stricken city to work in the canneries all along the Coast.

Wong Fong asserts that the Chinese never shared the agitation over the location of Chinatown; they had had assurances from the right quarter that they would stay on in the same old place. He says that most of the Chinese firms are preparing to resume, although a few have failed and a few have been forced to leave the city.

Speaking of the unions, he says the walking delegates made a strenuous effort to get the Chinese servants on the Pacific Mail steamers to join the union of the Chinese, but failed ridiculously. None of the Chinamen would go or would even listen to the yappers. They went to work as usual, business and held to their good jobs.

The resumption of Chinatown in San Francisco, he says, will not effect Los Angeles much. Not as many Chinese refugees came here as Americans generally supposed.

The most forlorn of the refugees, he says laughingly, are the highlanders. They have been experiencing a hard spring and summer. When the city is resumed they will come crawling back like rats. Although the Chinese do everything to keep them out, they are like American criminals.

Wong Fong, a professional adjuster, said Wong Fong last night, "to bring a big law suit against such of the insurance companies as do not settle with the Chinese of San Francisco. The Chinese quarter was very heavily insured. Chinese almost invariably lose when they sue, but we will not be put off any more than the American merchants."

In the rebuilding, Wong Fong says, the old Chinese quarter of Chinatown will probably not be reopened. Every effort will be made to have the new quarter clean and airy, and to do away with the old evils. He has little hope, however, of keeping out the tawdrier which formerly clung to Chinatown's border.

Wong Fong's grin when he says there is little hope of keeping the tawdrier away from Chinatown. Known as the "Chinese quarter," it has been a little more than a decade ago that it was a "bad" place, he said.

"Newspapers can talk; he don't care," says Wong Fong.

MOB THREATENS CREW OF CAR. MOTORMAN'S CARELESS ACT AROUSES CROWD.

Indignant Citizens March to Police Station in Body to Protest Against Manner in Which Trolley Car Is Run Across Path of Ambulance in Crowded Part of City.

While the police ambulance was dashing west along First street toward Spring street with M. C. Song, a Japanese laborer, who had been injured by falling from out-bound Pasadena car No. 315, last evening about 8 o'clock, University car No. 485 ran across the right of way of the ambulance and had not been that Patrol Driver Mart pulled his team sharply around the corner, the ambulance and car would have collided.

Before the coach pulled away from the first-street stop an angry mob surrounded it and threatened violence. They dispersed the crowd and they fled up to the central station in a body. There they informed the officer in charge that carelessness on the part of the motorman was evident to all and that he offered to give their names as witnesses.

Song was riding on the rear of the Pasadena car. As it rounded the corner from First street onto Los Angeles street he got up from his seat and stepped toward the rear steps. The conductor, who was in the center of the car, cried out to him, but he paid no heed and walked off the car. Song sustained a severe laceration of the scalp.

SECOND LIFE SNUFFED OUT.

Electric Juggernaut's Victim Dies In Hospital.

Young Woman Not Expected to Survive Injuries.

Motorman Is Blamed by Jury For Pico Accident.

The breath of life which hovered in the battered form of William Kellogg, a victim of the Onocenta Park collision, all day yesterday at the California Hospital, passed out last evening soon after sunset.

His life was despaired of at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, when he was taken with sudden internal hemorrhages, but from that time to the end Mrs. Edward T. Dillon and E. A. Bryant struggled to save him. With compound fractures of a leg, arm and the collar bone, concussion of the brain and complicated internal injuries, the task proved too great.

The body has been removed to Pierce Bros.' undertaking establishment.

Lying at the Pacific Hospital is Miss Louise St. George, who, physicians say, will die. At a late hour last night she was still unconscious and it was stated that her condition was just about as it had been for twenty-four hours. During the day there were moments when the young woman appeared to recognize her anxious relatives, and the next instant her mind would wander and she would continue her delicious mutterings.

Young Stewart St. George, brother of Miss St. George, is out of danger. C. E. Chapman, a Redlands attorney, is also at the Pacific Hospital, and is said to be on the road to recovery. It was feared at first that a concussion of the brain would prove fatal in his case, but so strongly has he rallied that he will be allowed to leave for his home shortly.

A. N. Adams and his daughter, Miss Edith Adams, are at the California Hospital, steadily improving. The father is badly bruised and the daughter, besides bruising, about the body, has a broken arm.

Miss Jessie York, daughter of Judge W. A. York, is suffering from a broken arm, and her injuries will not prove serious.

C. Stanley Tolley of the First National Bank and W. C. Curtis of No. 228 Merchants Place are resting well at the California Hospital and will be recovered in a few days.

L. W. Kellogg, who has been at the point of death at his home, No. 1411 Bond street, is slightly improved. Miss Louise Kellogg, his daughter, who was injured at the same time, is also better.

Miss Mina Merrill of No. 1405 Dewey avenue was one of the victims of the Onocenta Park wreck whose injury has not been serious.

She sustained a fracture of an arm, serious scalp wounds and was badly bruised about the body. She is a graduate of the State Normal School.

WORLD-TALK FIESTA NEXT.

Work Started Yesterday for Great Fete and Shrine Meet Next May.

La Fiesta, 1907, is under way. The committee in charge was appointed yesterday. It will be held from May 7 to 11. Work will be begun immediately toward raising money and planning the elaborate spectacles which are to constitute the public entertainment.

A request for $75,000 will be made, to defray the cost of the great celebration in the making.

The dates coincide with the season of the Imperial Council of the Mystic Shrine.

R. H. Herron has been chosen chairman of the committee, while F. J. Zeehandelaar, as usual, will be the secretary. Other members are A. K. Brauer, M. A. Ham-burger, Oscar C. Morgan and John Luckenbach.

There will be both floral and electrical parades, as well as a number of other unusual pageants, and the promoters plan to make the festival so unique and brilliant that it will be talked about over the entire English-speaking world.

"HOLY JUMPER" BOUNCED. Black Freak Howls at Deathbed in County Hospital, "No More," Says Superintendent.

"Never, never again for the 'Holy Jumper' in this institution," is the order of Superintendent Barber of the County Hospital.

Reason: A painful experience; mortification for the hospital management.

The most enthusiastic jumper was a demented old fellow of a hippopotamus. He used to jump out on Sundays and dance around the hospital, howling like a wild Indian, bellowing aloud to the Lord and shaking the rafters.

On the occasion of her last visit, she butted at full tension into a ward where a man lay sick unto death. A Catholic priest was kneeling by the bedside, reciting the prayers for the sick.

Instead of retiring, the black damsel entered with a whoop and plumped down on her knees just behind the priest. His low, even voice continued to murmur the words of the prayer.

The negro drew a good, long breath and began to pray herself in a voice which must have been heard "in case in heaven—perhaps even the next place beyond."

"Lord," she shouted, "Ah wish you'd kindly remove this limb of Satan and Popery."

"Ah ask you Lord to kindly 'trow out dis yew priestly demon from out'n our midst," she yelled.

The Latin prayer went steadily on; a hospital attendant stepped in quickly, and the black thing that went out was the "Holy Jumper."

Then Dr. Barker issued his order. The woman has not been back since.

SILK CULTURE LOCAL ASSET.

Death of Dentist Reveals Important Discovery.

Largest Loom in World Is Installed Here.

Expert Research Shows Big Possibilities.

Dr. De Witt Clinton Franklin, the first resident dentist of Los Angeles, who died recently at his home, No. 253 North Avenue 22, was carrying to practical success at the time of his death an industrial experiment which had already received the sanction of the United States government, and which represented for its promoter a lifetime of careful work and painstaking study. As a result of his propaganda the largest silk loom in the world has just been installed here.

Dr. Franklin was a silkworm enthusiast. He had made extensive researches in silk culture and was familiar with it by virtue of much experience.

At his death his relatives mourned that he should have worked for so many years at his favorite subject, only to pass out when consummation seemed about to crown his efforts.

SOP THROWN TO MATHEWS.

Congress Committee's Offer Held By String.

No Change Will Be Made in Country Primaries.

"Snap" Call Is to Prevail, Despite Protests.

Like a lamb going to the slaughter at the end of a string, the Republican Congress Committee of the Seventh District yesterday headed in part the protest of the W. R. Mathews Campaign Committee, with relation to primary elections in the country districts—and then Luther Brown swallowed the string.

With a truly Brownsonian wave of the hand, the Congress Committee granted the Mathews committee a part of what it asked—and then hedged the gift about with such restrictions that Mr. Mathews and his supporters would be in a fair way to become paupers for the rest of their lives were they to accept the proposition submitted to them. The gift was declined. The primaries will be held on Thursday next.

It was a public protest against the calling of snap primaries in country precincts for August 2, and in response to a written protest made by managers of the Mathews campaign, the Congress Committee called a meeting for yesterday afternoon at the Republican League rooms, No. 111 1/2 South Spring street. Congressman McLachlan and Mr. Mathews, aspirants for the Republican nomination to Congress, were invited. Mr. McLachlan was there. Mathews was represented by Herbert J. Goudge and George B. McLaughlin.

It was an acrimonious session, particularly as respects the attitude of certain members of the committee toward the representatives of Mr. Mathews. It was stormy at times. It was particularly so when Mr. McLachlan arose to tell of all that he had done in Congress for the dear people of his district.

Whether Brown, who had prepared the original snap call and who so cleverly combined the duties of secretary of the committee and manager of the McLachlan campaign, pulled the strings as usual and occasionally bit a piece out of the enemy with his sarcastic remarks.

Brown got red, cross, and there wasn't a stage of the proceedings at which he was not worked up to the highest pitch of nervous tension. It really looked for a time as if something really awful was about to happen—but Luther faded at the end. To put it briefly, the representatives of Mr. Mathews were asked to state their position to the committee, all the members of which were present, except George I. Cochran, Dr. W. R. Beckett was in for a few minutes, but a professional call soon took him away.

For the Mathews side, Mr. McLaughlin stated that the calling of the primaries in country precincts for August 2—next Thursday—placed Mathews at a disadvantage. He said that McLachlan machine was in fine working order, and could hold the primaries. The general understanding was that Mathews had been given no opportunity to place himself properly before the people of the outside districts.

URGE SAME DATES. The speaker suggested that the country primaries be held simultaneously with those in the cities of Los Angeles and Pasadena—August 14—arguing that no harm possibly could come to the cause of the Mathews campaign would be given all that was asked for in fair play.

Oscar Lawler, member of the Congress Committee, stated that Mr. Mathews had been given ample time to make a campaign, and that there was no reason why the country primaries should not be held as originally decided upon. He opposed any change in the date.

Mr. Goudge followed with an appeal to the committee for fair play.

"It is well known," he said, "that a member of this committee (Luther Brown, its secretary) had simultaneously acted as manager for one of the candidates (McLachlan), and it is generally believed that at least one or two strong partisans of one of the candidates (McLachlan) have been actively engaged in promoting his campaign. We think it is incumbent on the committee as representing the Republican party to be entirely fair with all aspirants for the nomination."

To the effect that the country primaries at an unnecessarily early date, give the advantage to the candidate who already is on the ground. It is like the advantage given in a foot race to the participant who is allowed the privilege of giving the word to start.

TIME TOO SHORT. "The time as set gives no complete opportunity for a fair campaign by all the candidates. Three weeks are given to the candidates to prepare for the city primaries. Can it be

Foley Shores to Advantage Among Invaders.

On the four cement courts of the Ocean Park Country Club the twenty-second annual tennis tournament of the Lawn Tennis Association of Southern California commenced yesterday. The Tournament Committee has succeeded in rounding up the largest entry list in the history of the association and nearly all of the contestants have had more or less experience in the game.

It has always been the desire of the managers to bring northern players to this year the committee has succeeded in getting four of the cracks to enter. Foley, who is only eighteen, is the best of the invaders, and he plays the game with the cool, steady stroke of the tournament winner, Gardner. Adams and Crawford are the rest of the foreigners.

For the first time in the history of the game here, Santa Barbara will be represented. Spaulding, who exhibited such a whirlwind play against Brady of this city in the championship match of the recent tournament in the Channel City, will give some of the local cracks a hard fight.

Several good matches took place yesterday, probably the best being that in which Foley disposed of Gorman in the open singles. Gorman played a brilliant game, the first set but the same old story of a steady player against a stroky player is repeated.

The Hollywood wonder passed the northern man time and again, both cross-court and down the side line, but the hard work finally told on the local man and he lost the last two sets rather easily. The score was 2-6, 6-2, 6-4.

NORTHERN MAN WINS.

Another good match in the afternoon took place when Gardner and Lawrence crossed rackets. Gardner was out of his element as were all of the northern men on account of the cement courts, asphalt being the surface at North. Gardner, who is a big man, seemed to cover the whole court and was relieving his best, but his back-court game was poor.

Lawrence took the first set by careful placing and well-executed shots, but by the time the first set was over his opponent seemed to know his ground much better. The second set went to Gardner after many dence shots. In the third set both men were playing their hardest, but the experience of the northern man told on the pride of Ocean Park and he lost the match by the score of 6-7, 6-4, 6-4.

Albert Spaulding captured the attention of the spectators part of the afternoon by defeating Grace in straight sets. Spaulding has some very clean strokes and his side-line passes yesterday were brilliant. This is the first time he has played on cement and if he becomes accustomed to the courts he should give a good account of himself.

Tom Bundy, who recently won the Ocean Park tournament, played a hand and showed the spectators how to play the game. He was generous with Donnell in their match and won by 7-5, 6-1.

One of the features of the day was the match between E. Gilbert Galusha and Conde Jones. The latter won the first set, but the tide turned in the second and another his opponent by the score of 6-3. The first three games of the last set went to Jones, somewhat of a dispute arose about changing sides at the end of every odd game. Galusha was impressed with the idea that the whole thing ought to be played over again, but the kind words of Mr. Taylor, the umpire, had the effect of deciding that the match continue with Galusha playing the last three games on the good side.

Alphonso Bell, the former champion of Southern California, appeared in the evening for the first time in the tournament, yesterday, disposing of Dwight Holmes by the score of 6-0, 6-1.

Dwight Holmes, the champion of the open hill-climbing contest up the famous Crawford's Notch after three cars had made the perilous ascent, a steady downpour during the night left the course in soft condition and the running of the events was deferred until this afternoon. Several hundred persons had driven out to the picturesque route to watch the competition, when the storm was renewed, if weather permits the contest will be continued tomorrow.

German Boats Being Tried for Contest in East.

BY STINSON JARVIS.

One of the most important men in the international yachting world visited Los Angeles yesterday and left last night for Washington. This was Commander H. C. Hebbinghaus, the naval attaché to the Imperial German Embassy at Washington.

He is the right-hand man of the German Emperor in all those arrangements for the contesting of American yachts in which His Majesty has shown so much interest. It was Commander Hebbinghaus who, with the assistance of several committees of New York clubs, arranged the great ocean race for the Emperor's gold cup, which was recently sailed from Sandy Hook to the Lizard.

Nine first-class yachts entered for that race, which was the greatest contest in the annals of the sport; and as there were several undercurrents of local feeling and rivalry at that time among New York clubs and yachtsmen, the final success of the whole affair showed that the diplomatic end of it had been in deft hands.

Commander Hebbinghaus has now another large international yachting project on hand and has completed arrangements for an annual tournament between three German and three American yachts. When these tournaments are held on American side of the Atlantic all control of them will be in the hands of the Eastern Yacht Club of Boston and the Marblehead, and when the three Yankee craft compete in German waters the races will be under the auspices of the Imperial Kaiserliche Yacht Club of Kiel.

Mr. Hebbinghaus said yesterday: "For a long time His Majesty has wished that there should be a racing between American and German yachts. As you know, he has for many years had the keenest admiration for the yacht-designs of America, and the extraordinary speed that has been developed under sail in this country. This was evident when he had his present schooner, the Meteor, built at the New York yards of Townsend and Downey, and he was also the purchaser of the late Snydam Palmer's schooner, Yampa, of the New York Yacht Club—this boat being now the property of the German Yacht Club and the royal family in cruises up the Baltic.

"His Majesty has known a great many American yachtsmen—Cornelius Vanderbilt, the owner of the Rainbow and other vessels, and the Goletta, who owned the Yowler and the Nahma. After the last race across the ocean the American yachtsmen all agreed that the light winds and the smooth swells of the Marblehead courses."

"But would they allow the Crown Prince, the heir to the throne, to leave the country?" Commander Hebbinghaus was asked.

"Oh, yes," he replied. "The Kaiser's family has just been increased by a little son, and his wife is not very strong; so on that account only his coming may be doubtful."

"And what of Eitel Fritz, who is mentioned as possibly sailing a boat at Marblehead?"

"Eitel Fritz is the second son of the Kaiser's brother, the Crown Prince; they are all good yachtsmen."

"Certainly," what the American papers say about his yachting ability is quite true. He can sail a yacht as well as anybody, and his knowledge is well confined to yachts. He knows every kind of a boat from a first-class battleship down to a one-masted schooner."

"What else of racer will contest in these international meetings?"

"The German name is Sanderlasse, meaning a special class, the water-line length of all these is forty feet, the overall length being not subject to limit. One idea that Commander Hebbinghaus has is to select a boat of all these that should be of a size bringing them within the means of many; because, you know, this racing of first-class vessels is a very expensive work."

YACHTS TRIED OUT.

"Nine vessels have contested in the German trials, and I think that about nineteen are being prepared for test in America. One of these comes all the way from the New Orleans Yacht Club. The Eastern Yacht Club is much pleased at this, and the design plans of the racer suggest to me something exceedingly fast."

"I am now going back to Washington and will stop over in Chicago to see the yachts in the neighborhood, and then go to see the trials of the American boats at Marblehead. The German yachts will come over by steamer and the final races will be sailed in September under the racing rules of the Eastern Yacht Club."

"Can you tell me whether it is true that the Emperor is having Herreshoff design a new racing schooner for him?"

"It is true that Herreshoff was consulted, but his reply was that he could not undertake to beat the present schooner, Ingomar, unless he could give the new design a huge draught. But as most of our harbors around Kiel and the Baltic are shallow of water, this proposal could not be entertained and the idea is now given up. We must have yachts to suit our harbors."

Commander Hebbinghaus is himself an expert yachtsman and he speaks with great enthusiasm of the numerous yachts he has met in the Eastern Yacht Club. "They are sailors," he said. "They know the game from end to end; and in these international races every boat must be steered by an amateur. Professionals may be on board, but the man at the stick must not only be an amateur, but also a member of a recognized yacht club and a native of the country he represents."

The commander asked many questions about the trans-Pacific ocean yacht race from the port of Los Angeles to Honolulu.

"That was a fine beginning to the ocean yacht racing of the Pacific," he said, "and it was a long contest, nearly twenty-five hundred miles—almost as long as the race to the Lizard. Where can I get full information and pictures about that race?"

"I promise to send you a full supply to Washington, and copies will be sent to the German Emperor."

The Yale player caught the former Harvard expert off his game at the beginning of the match, and try as he could, Clothier was unable to control his strokes. The "just as good" with which some dealers try to palm off a substitute is true in any way. It is only "just as good" for the dealer who pushes the sale. It is only "just as good" for the buyer who risks an unknown preparation for Mennen's.

There's nothing just as good as Mennen's Borated Talcum Powder, and the dealer who says there is, risks his customer's skin and safety to make an extra profit on a sale.

The score, as far down as the tenth row, remains relatively the same this morning. Merle Prewitt makes her place more secure by the addition of almost 1500 points, over 1100 of which were sent in on a fourteen month subscription by a Pasadena friend.

THE DOCTORS' FAVORITE.
Little Edith Farrell bears the laurels this morning for the largest individual score turned in yesterday. Edith continued to canvas about town yesterday, and landed 600 more, bringing her total score for the day up to over 2000 points. Some Los Angeles doctors followed the example of their colleagues, who last week wrote out subscriptions for Edith, and the child is growing so much a doctor's favorite that she is now being called "the doctor's girl."

THESE ARE GOING SOME.
Ignatius Parker is going some these days, and turned in 1500 points yesterday, passing that persistent climber, Joanne Cameron, and jumping at a single leap from the 13,000 to the 15,000 row.

BERTHA COHEN, that lively little mid-set, performed the same feat, daily jumping with the 25,000 column, without so much as touching her toes, and landing in the 25,000 row, not many points behind Minnie Ponder.

UPS AND DOWNS.
Maud Asanur, the Azusa flier, this morning passes both Minnie Ponder and Bertha Cohen, landing in tenth place. Maud is little, but very, and as agile as a squirrel. She has six brothers, and they are rather proud of the record their small sister is making all by herself. Maud and Minnie have been racing for precedence for days, and it increases in interest as the two girls will have several others to reckon with from now on. Bertha Cohen, William Bolstad and Earl Robinson are crowding her down one row, and with Orestes also to count on it will be a six-handed game instead of a two-handed affair.

GLADYS EASTMAN passes the San Diego girl by exactly six points, and Jewel Denhele enters the five-figure row. Estella Green takes Mansie Kim's place, crowding her down one row. Myrtle McCarger goes up one and takes the Monrovia girl's place, and Frank Wagner goes up two rows. Frank is now devoting his time to the contest, and results may be looked for.

CECIL GREEN jumps Rose Leonetti by just eleven points, and Laura Lloyd goes up one row, and rises into the 2000 column. Lena Shapiro, who entered the contest only a week ago, has over 200 points to her credit, which is a very fair showing for the few days she has been working.

THESE WERE THE LAURELS.
Bertha Smith wears the laurels for new subscriptions turned in last week, having secured thirty-eight. Orestes Orfila is next in line with twenty-three annuals to his credit. It is the new subscribers that send the score soaring, for they count double the number of points that renewals do.

TOUCHED THE TOP.
Last Saturday's record touched high tide for the contest so far, almost 80,000 points being turned in on that day.

HER BIRTHDAY SUBSCRIPTIONS.
Edna Wagner was very happy yesterday. Her friends are remembering her very generously on account of

MANSIE KIM,
Chinese contestant.

What thirteenth birthday that comes along tomorrow, she and her little sister, Grace, brought in 1000 points yesterday which, curiously enough, exactly corresponds to the year 1906. Today Edna expects more, but says she doesn't dare to hope for another 1906. What a splendid idea it would be to surprise this little hard-working girl with an even 2000. As a result of her birthday remembrances Edna this morning advances two rows, passing Veda Snow and Paul Steintorf, to Santa Barbara and Calexico candidates.

FROM FORMER CONTESTANT.
A Whittier friend sent in three dozen coupons for Zonie Vitus, one of the Bakersfield contestants, and Harry Moore, the Oxnard boy, receives support from Charles Veenhuysen of San Luis Potosi, Mex., who is a former resident of Oxnard. He writes: "Please add these coupons to the score of Harry Moore, who I have known since I was in the contest of 1904, but did not work hard enough to win a prize."

THE CHINESE CONTESTANT.
The Times presents this morning the picture of Mansie Kim, the Chinese girl of Bakersfield who is trying to win a scholarship in a business college. She is certainly a bright-looking girl and her face is indicative of her intellect, for those who know her unite in saying that Mansie is an exceptional bright young woman. She is 15 years old and, so far as known, is the first Chinese girl in this country who has ever essayed to enter business life. She keeps her father's books now, as he is a vegetable farmer living near Bakersfield and supplies a large territory with fruit and vegetables. Mansie has written several letters to the scholarship manager and others who have taken an interest in her hopes and aspirations, and her personality and composition indicate that she is a good student for higher education. It is well said yesterday a gentleman who is a prominent official in the First Methodist Church, sent in six month's subscription in favor of Mansie and a lady forwarded seventy-five coupons. The various missions of the city have declared themselves in favor of the Chinese candidate, and there is a good prospect of her winning a scholarship if they carry out their desire, but these friends should bear in mind the fact that time is rapidly passing. The contest is now near its close and if they intend to do anything for Mansie it is quite time they were about it. Mansie was named for Mrs. Conger, the well-known missionary in China, and her mother, Mrs. Kim, was reared and educated in the Presbyterian Mission for Chinese Girls in San Francisco. Mansie inherits a good deal of intellect and Christian training from her mother.

The second highest will have second choice of scholarships and the first cash prize of $500, the third will have third choice of scholarships and the cash prize of $100, and so on to the end of the list. ## THE VERDI SCHOOL OF SINGING.

founded two years ago, has proven itself to be one of the popular and useful schools of Los Angeles. Its founder and director, Signor Buzzzi, is a man of extensive knowledge, having been associated for many years with the great masters of song all over the world, appearing in all the larger cities, both in this country and Europe, singing with such celebrities as Rosini, Sembrich, Adela Patti, Masina, and many other artists as well known. He is one of the very few exponents of the "Bel Canto" and has gained in his association with the grand opera the keen insight that is so necessary to win the public favor of the stage. It is only by persistent stage work, he believes, that one can discover the true method of placing and using the voice. Of this he has made a specialty, feeling that it requires great experience and skill in the study of grand opera, for the development of the temperamental feeling that is the secret of success. Signor Buzzzi holds that in the art of singing, more than in any other branch of music, the study of the instruction is most important, and with his corps of experienced teachers, is prepared, not only to properly instruct beginners in the vocal art, but also to prepare those who desire to pursue an operatic career. Redondo Dental, Arrested on Charge of Practicing Dentistry Without License, Secures Postponement of Case One Month to Import Lawyer from Kansas.

Enraged at being arrested, Dr. A. J. Marick of Redondo has arranged to import a lawyer from the wilds of Kansas to eat up the dental laws of California.

On information furnished by the detectives of the State Dental Society, Dr. Marick was taken into custody yesterday on the charge of practicing dentistry without a license. When brought into Justice Pierce's court, he was about as angry as a cat.

He admitted that he has been practicing since 1883 without a license, but said it was professional jealousy that caused his arrest.

"Two kid dental students moved to Redondo a while back and they are trying to put me out of business," he said. "This brought this complaint."

A meek, inoffensive detective was pointed out to him, sitting in the courtroom.

"Oh, you spotted. Here I am going to talk to you," he muttered. Rushing round to the other side of the room, he advanced up to the detective and said something superheated which began with "damn." When he came back, he asked Justice Pierce to postpone the case for a month.

"A month," said the court in surprise.

"Yes, a month," snapped the doctor, "am going to send back to Kansas for brother-in-law, R. R. Reese, to knock out this ridiculous law. He is judge of the District Court, there, and a mighty fine lawyer."

It will be pretty expensive, importing lawyers half way across the continent, won't it—to defend you from a possible fine of $100?" asked the judge mildly.

"I don't care anything about the money," said the irate dentist. "I will stand the price, but I mean to have my brother-in-law here for this case."

The court asked the Redondo dentist if it would not be less trouble to take out the usual license and stand the customary examination. He retorted that the State dental board was farce; that it admitted students and youngsters without qualifications; that they were fighting among the members which generally were ridiculous.

At the earnest request of the doctor, the District Attorney consented that the case go over for a month. Meanwhile, the telephone wires between this address and Kansas are beginning to smoke.

ON TRAIL FOR SCALP.
Juvenile Detention Committee Ladies Wait on Supervisors to Inquire About Mrs. Pratt's Case.

Three ladies gowned for the war trail advanced on the Board of Supervisors yesterday, demanding the removal of Mrs. Pratt as matron of the Juvenile Detention Home. They are right after her scalp.

The Supervisors, who had fondly hoped that the Mrs. Pratt matter had blown over, awaited the onslaught ducked in their chairs—shivering with dread.

BIG PLANS FOR SOUTH RAYMOND.

AVENUE TO BE IMPROVED DURING SUMMER.

Paradise People Will Go After One-Story Blocks and Transform Appearance of This Thoroughfare. Big New Bldg. Building—Victor Marsh to Alter Present Quarters.

Office of The Times, No. 12 S. Raymond Ave., PASADENA, July 30.—Improvements entailing the outlay of many thousands of dollars will be made on South Raymond avenue, between Mercantile and Green streets, this summer. Nearly all of the one-story buildings will either be torn down or built onto and by winter time the street will present a very different appearance.

The largest single building operation will be the new Bldg. block, the ground for which is now being cleared. This building will be 100 feet square, four stories high and will represent an outlay of about $75,000.

Victor Marsh will build a three or four-story addition to his building at the corner of Green street and Raymond avenue, and will fit the new part up in latest style. The upper floors of the building will be given over to apartments and will be provided with elevators and other modern improvements.

The Vanderblock will be provided with a new front and in other ways will be modernized. New windows will be put in place and the entrance to the store will be provided with artistic woodwork.

POLICE CATCH BLIND PIG. Comfortably ensconced in John Dizon's "refreshment" place on North Fair Oaks avenue just south of the car barn, Charles McDaniel tonight was having a soul-satisfying drink, when his glass was grabbed from behind.

"Here you can't have that!" said McDaniel. "Oh yes, I can, and I'll take it!" said a voice.

"But it's mine and I paid for it. You can't have it!" "That doesn't make any difference, I'll take it!"

And McDaniel woke up to the fact that another of Pasadena's blind pigs had been raided.

Dizon's place has been under the eye of Chief of Police Pinkham for three weeks. Tonight he, with Detective Copping, decided to make a raid. One went to the front door and another to the rear and simultaneously they entered.

Inside was McDaniel, who was drinking; Stanley Shaffer, the bartender, and Adam Kruse, the cashier. Dizon had gone home. The three occupants were arrested and the place searched. A complete array of general delinquency was unearthed and taken as evidence.

Kraus and McDaniel were released on their own recognizance to appear as witnesses tomorrow when the case comes up. Shaffer, being unable to furnish bail, will remain over night in jail.

BRIEF LOCAL LORE. At the meeting of the City Commissioners today the offer of Manager McGraw of the City Sewer Farm to furnish fuel to the fire department at $16 per ton was received and accepted. The Commissioners will now ask the City Council for permission to store their hay at the Villa-street engine house. M. O. Palmer of No. 175 North Catalina avenue was appointed a special policeman on the recommendation of the Chief of Police.

SKATING RINK CLAIMS VICTIM.

WOMAN HURT AT VENICE SUMMERS TO GRIM REAPER.

Mrs. Gertrude Eberhart, Whose Fall Several Weeks Ago Resulted in Concussion of Brain, Passes Away. First to Receive Fatal Injuries at That Beach.

VENICE, July 30.—The skating rink crash has claimed its first victim on this beach. Mrs. Gertrude Eberhart while roller skating several weeks ago sustained a hard fall that resulted in concussion of the brain. Her condition was considered critical for many days, and she died last night at her summer home on Surf street.

The remains are to be taken to Riverside for interment. The unfortunate woman was but 23 years of age, and leaves a widower and a baby one year and a half old.

KILLED UNDER CAR OF ROCK.

SAN PEDRO MAN LOST LIFE ON A TRESTLE.

Was Employed on Pile Driver. Leaves a Sister in Pittsburgh, and a Daughter in Arkansas—Humane Officer Attacked by Grading Contractor—Says He Was Hit by Rocks.

SAN PEDRO, July 30.—A moving carload of rock on the breakwater trestle today crushed the life of John Brady, who was employed on the pile driver.

Brady was 45 years old, and had been employed at the work for three years. Papers in his pockets showed that he had a sister, Mrs. N. C. Gallagher, in Pittsburgh, Pa. There was also a letter from a daughter, Miss Lucy Brady of Silas Springs, Ark., written last February.

The body was taken to Lucas's undertakings room. There will be an inquest tomorrow.

OFFICER IS STONED. Deputy Humane Officer P. A. Rambo was hit by a rock on the head and injured, being struck three times in the head and once under the heart by rocks which he states were thrown by McCoy.

After being knocked down Rambo says he was kicked and beaten by McCoy and other employees.

Shilling has a contract for grading Seventh and Eighth streets and considerable complaint has been made of inhuman treatment to the horses and mules employed on the job. On Saturday six of the animals were taken off the job on account of their bad condition and a young teamster of the name of John Brown was arrested for inhuman treatment by Deputy Officer Mitchell of Los Angeles.

Mr. Rambo, while still bleeding profusely from his wounds, made the following statement of the assault: "I was with the McCoy crew on Saturday, because all the stock is in bad condition."

Humane Officer Zimmerman is expected to return to the city tomorrow noon or tomorrow to make a thorough investigation. Foreman A. D. McCoy has been arrested, charged with an assault with a dangerous weapon, and is stated numerous other arrests will follow.

Spent the month at Coronado Tent City. MANY PEACHES FOR CANNERY. Pomona Company Now Employs Over One Hundred Cutters—Fruit is Good and Plentiful.

POMONA, July 30.—Over one hundred persons are engaged in cutting peaches at the local cannery, and the work will continue now without cessation for four or five weeks.

The first peaches came from the Cucamonga district, and many tons have been purchased in Central California, which will be shipped here.

The cannery expects to handle twice as many peaches as was canned last year, the crop being large and the quality excellent. C. H. Waters & Co. also own the cannery at Ontario, where a large force is at work putting up the present crop.

POMONA POINTERS. A. H. Schroder is home from San Diego. Frank W. Ford and bride are at Coronado Tent City.

"Tom" Dillon spent yesterday at Ocean Park. E. A. Lawrence has returned from Catalina.

John C. Walker and wife entertained a few friends at their home on North Gordon street on Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Preston of Grinnell, Iowa.

If you spend August at Coronado Tent City you will be happy.

CATHOLIC ORPHANS MADE GLAD. Four Cars Carry Little Ones Over Ballroom Route—They are Happily Entertained at Playa del Rey.

PLAYA DEL REY, July 30.—A jaunt over the Ballroom Route and a fish dinner on the sand was the entertainment provided by C. M. Pierce, the Ballroom Route manager, today, for more than 200 children of the Catholic Orphan's Asylum at Boyle Heights.

It required four cars to carry the little folks, and upon reaching the playground the programme was picnic, play and fish. The picnic was a most enjoyable one, and the children were given a written copy of Judge Bordwell's annexation decision, but action in their cases will be delayed until Saturday to give them a chance.

Complaints are coming in of victims of a skin game on the beach east of the pier, operated by a gang of eight men and women. The police will investigate.

Coronado Tent City is most popular in August. Try it.
